HUPP MURDER CASE RESUMED AT CLEVELAND

Prosecution Closes and Defense Calls the First Witness

DAUGHTER WILL TESTIFY
IN BEHALF OF FATHER

Boyhood Friends Testify to Reputation of the Defendant

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, March 4.—The prosecution closed its case today in the trial of Elmer Hupp, wealthy oil operator charged with second degree murder for killing Charles L. Joyce, whom he found in the Hupp home in the company of Mrs. Hupp on the night of January 10.

A verbal clash between attorneys for the defense and the state over the competency of testimony brought a temporary halt to the trial.

The defense had placed William J. Dabney, former neighbor of the Hupps on the stand to testify that he had seen Mrs. Hupp and Joyce together at the Hupp home during the husband's absence. County Prosecution Doerflinger objected to the introduction of such testimony, claiming it was "incompetent and had no bearing on the case."

Attorneys for Hupp argued before the court that any testimony that would show that Mrs. Hupp had forgotten through whom that testimony was offered on the stand was competent. Judge Kennedy adjourned court while the point being argued was settled. His decision is expected to have much bearing on the line of defense the attorneys for Hupp expected to introduce.

The defense started the examination of witnesses whose testimony will show, the attorneys say, that Hupp was justified in slaying Joyce. It is said the defense will call about 25 witnesses.

Indications now are that Consuelia Hupp, 14 year old daughter of the defendant, will be the chief witness for the defense. The state has decided not to call her as a witness and the defense had also decided, at Hupp's request, to spare the little girl the ordeal of facing the curious crowd of the courtroom, but Attorney William L. David, of counsel for Hupp, said the girl herself has requested to do all she can for her father and that he will probably call her to testify.

The first witnesses for the defense were Probate Judge Archer, Dr. J. S. Gray, Edward C. Brown and W. C. Harper, all of Caldwell, O., friends of Hupp since boyhood. They testified that Hupp's reputation in Caldwell, where he lived until he was 21, was always good.

GAVE LIFE BEHIND FRONT TRENCHES FOR AMERICANS

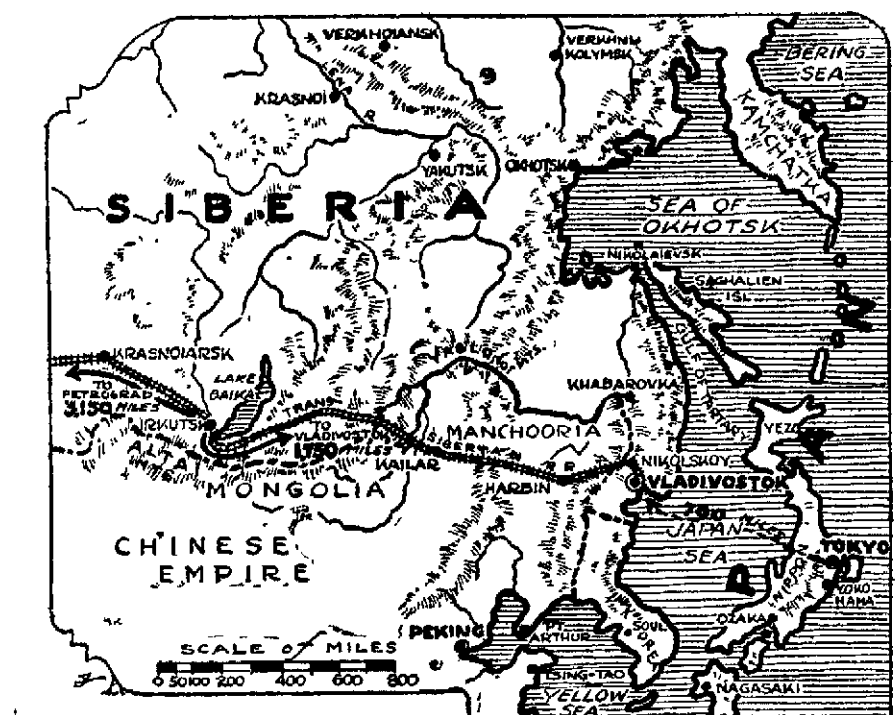

With the American Army in France, Sunday, March 3.—Some of the American troops in the Chemin des Dames sector are having an experience of cave life behind the front trenches. Their billets being deep under ground quarries and natural recesses beneath the surface. The correspondent on a visit to this sector found them thus quartered, occupying positions held by the Germans less than a year ago. Most of the Americans however are living in the trenches and accompanying dug-outs.

The front line trenches have been cleaned, strengthened and improved and are well protected with barbed wire. The underground billets, some of them old limestone quarries and others partly natural in formation and improved through blasting operations by the Germans who occupied them for nearly three years are variously named. One of them is called the "Panthron." It accommodates a thousand men. The correspondent found French and American soldiers living together there in perfect harmony.

The living quarters of the Americans in this cave are 72 feet under ground. The cave consists of long galleries with cement ceilings. Fresh air is supplied by large air pumps. The cave is in part electrically lighted. Elsewhere acetone lamps and oil lanterns are employed. The men usually remain in this cavern from four to six days each, a company being assigned a certain portion of the excavation.

The men are not permitted to roam about at will for fear of their being lost, or to go outside except on duty lest they be detected by enemy aircraft. The troops here sleep on low double tiered wooden bunks covered with straw. The company officers are provided with small rooms with wooden partitions. A small railway carrying supplies runs through the cave. A sign over one entrance reads: "East Boston tunnel" and one of the men standing near remarked: "That reminds me of home."

WHERE JAPAN MAY FINALLY BE OF USE TO ALLIES' CAUSE WITH LAND FORCES

Map shows proximity of Japan to Vladivostok, whence Japanese troops could readily go into Siberia to restore order.

Dispatches have been frequent recently telling of Japan's plans to send a force into Siberia to help restore order in the cities where revolutionary outbreaks have been so numerous and where the German agents have stirred up the natives to orgies of pillage and frightfulness.

Some time ago it was reported that Japanese troops had gone over to Vladivostok to guard allies' supplies in that port.

GERMAN OPERATIONS ON WEST FRONT MORE ACTIVE AND INCREASE IN SCOPE

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)

Russia's delegates at Brest-Litovsk have halted the German invasion of Great Russia by agreeing to the peace terms offered February 21. Peace was made, they report, because every day of delay meant more demands by the Germans. Added provisions require the Russians not only to retire from Turkey's Asiatic provinces but also from territory in the regions of Kais, Batoum and Karsdagh, taken from the Turks during the past few years.

Berlin also announced the signing of peace terms and the cessation of operations. When the German forward movement halted the invaders were at Narva, 100 miles west of Petrograd, and approaching Luga, 88 miles southwest. The greatest part of the Ukraine also has been cleared of the Bolsheviks. Much war material and more than 63,000 prisoners have been captured by the Germans in the Russian campaign.

Germany apparently is determined to give the Bolsheviks but a narrow strip along the Gulf of Finland and at the request of the Finnish government is to undertake the expulsion of the Finnish revolutionaries and Bolshevik red guards from southern Finland with Estonia under German control and Finland freed from Bolshevik sway. The Bolsheviks will have less than 200 miles of coast line along the Finnish gulf.

German troops already have landed on the Aland Islands at the entrance of the Gulf of Bothnia and will make the islands the base of their operations in support of the Finnish government.

Germany has assured Sweden that she has no territorial interest in the Aland Islands. On the western front the Germans are becoming more active. Their raiding operations have increased in scope and are approaching the size of planned attacks. The attacks on the American sector against the French in Champagne and elsewhere were in greater strength last week than has been usual heretofore. The enemy artillery fire also is increasing on all the fronts. Except in Flanders the weather has been more favorable to military operations and the heralded German blows may be made soon.

American officers and privates who distinguished themselves in the repulse of the German attack northward of Toul last week have been decorated by the French government. War crosses being given the men in the presence of Premier Clemenceau. While visiting the American sector Sunday the French premier went into the front line trenches, inspected the hospitals, talked with officers and men, and returned to Paris satisfied that the Americans were able to hold their own against the common enemy.

NEWARK MAY GET MOTOR TRUCK POST DELIVERY SERVICE

The motor truck parcels post delivery service between Columbus and Zanesville went into effect this morning, the truck making one round trip each day. This service is the only one of its kind west of the Allegheny mountains but it is probable that more routes will be established over the state some time in the very near future.

Er-Senator W. A. Alsford, of the Ohio Federation of Good Roads and Postmaster S. A. Kinnear of Columbus, were in the city today, meeting with the county commissioners in regard to making repairs in the pike near Kinkersville. The commissioners agreed to make the necessary repairs.

The route of the truck line is over the National pike and Mr. Alsford stated that it is probable that one of the trips would be made by the way of Granville, Newark and Linville, carrying parcels up to 70 pounds in weight and if the patronage justified it more trucks would be placed in the service.

YEGGS CAPTURED WHILE AT WORK

Toledo, March 4.—Just as they were about to explode a charge of nitroglycerine in the safe of a large downtown moving picture theatre, today, two men were arrested by the police. They gave their names as Charles Leonard, Toledo, and I. Fisher, Chicago.

A theatre watchman gave the alarm. The safe, containing $1,100, had been drilled and the hole filled with explosive. The cracksmen offered resistance, but surrendered after the police had fired two shots.

While Americans Searched
For Their Missing
Comrades

PRISONER BY GERMANY

Fight Results In Driving
Huns To Cover With Heavy Losses

(Associated Press Telegram)
With the American Army in France, Sunday, March 3.—The Americans the Germans claimed to have captured on the Chemin des Dames probably was the larger part of a patrol of thirteen men which went out when the raid began and has not been heard of since. The enemy obtained no prisoners from the American trenches.

Volunteers from American units along the Chemin des Dames searched No Man's Land in a rain of machine gun bullets for thirteen missing men of a patrol party but did not find any trace of them except one man who had been killed. "It is certain the Germans obtained prisoners from this patrol."

Details of the German attack which failed, now are available. American artillery men laid down a barrage fire as soon as the Germans started their fire. It is known that three companies of especially trained "shock troops" which had been practicing for this operation for two weeks took part in the attack. Each company was preceded by a picked party of twenty pioneers.

The fighting was brisk for about an hour but the accurate machine gun and rifle fire from the American front lines coupled with the perfect American barrage which prevented reinforcements from coming up, forced the Germans to withdraw after sustaining heavy casualties and without having set foot in the American trenches.

Soon after the attack was over a young lieutenant commanding a platoon, members of which composed the patrolling party which had gone out into No Man's Land went out to find them but without result. He returned to his trench and asked for a volunteer detail. Every man in the platoon volunteered but the lieutenant picked out a small party and set out again. They were forced to return however, when the German fire became increasingly heavy. The lieutenant and a detail made a third search but without success. All the missing men came from New England.

The American general commanding the unit on this front said the men were eager for action and were continually asking permission to remain in the front line longer than the allotted period. It has been found necessary to caution them frequently against exposing themselves. However, they are tempted to peer over the top in the daytime and go over at night in the hope of "starting something."

The French general who trained these troops is proud of the showing they are making while completing their period of instruction. An American captain said:

"They called us tin soldiers in America less than a year ago, but I guess we are delivering the goods just the same. Of course, the last week between 500 and 1,500 gas shells were thrown on the American positions on the Chemin des Dames front each day but there have been no serious gas casualties there. The men have been trained thoroughly in the use of gas masks and the necessity of putting them on before going into the trenches. They do not find it in the least uncomfortable."

FRENCH PREMIER PRAISES OUR BOYS FOR THEIR BRAVERY

Paris, Sunday, March 3.—Premier Clemenceau visited the American troops today and reviewed the soldiers who repulsed the German attack Friday. The premier left Paris Saturday evening and returned this evening when the following semi-official note was issued:

"The president of the council desires personally to congratulate the American troops in the sector where they have just repulsed brilliantly a strong army attack. The battalion which took part in this operation was reviewed by the premier in whose presence the general commanding the army decorated with the war cross certain officers and privates whose bravery had been particularly remarkable."

"This check to the enemy attack was, moreover, far more severe than first information showed. The American government had modestly announced that some of the enemy had been killed and some made prisoners. As a matter of fact, the latest reconnaissance have shown that in addition to these losses, the Germans left quite a large number of corpses between the lines."

"It was a very fine success, reflecting great honor on the tenacity of the American infantry and the accuracy of the artillery fire, which have thus shown they are capable of attaining the maximum effect from the French material which they have adopted."

After visiting the field hospital, where he admired the morale of the wounded, the premier went to the front lines to examine the scene of this operation. During his conversations with American generals, officers and privates, the premier noted in every one a feeling of absolute confidence, which, if possible, has been heightened further by the brilliant results of their first serious meeting with the enemy over whom our allies have thus clearly shown their superiority."

"The premier also saw on his way some of our own troops at rest. He conversed with the officers and men, warmly congratulating and encouraging them. Our pollus had but one reply:

"They shall not pass!"

Premier Clemenceau on his return to Paris was too occupied to give the Associated Press an interview on his visit, but a prominent government official who accompanied the premier, said:

"I cannot, of course, say what section the premier visited, nor give any military detail, but your gallant general, J. J. Pershing, came to meet him and accompanied him on the entire visit.

"Your army made altogether an excellent impression on the premier. He found the men in perfect physical condition and their morale thoroughly satisfactory, showing calmness, confidence and implacable resolution. Their evident desire is to strive in courage their elders in the struggle. The premier equally was struck by the fine bearing of your officers and their skill in handling their men and also by the extreme cordiality of their relations with their French comrades."

RUSSIANS BEGIN TO DESTROY BRIDGES ON THE TRANS-SIBERIAN

Washington, March 4.—The Russians have begun destroying bridges on the Trans-Siberian railroad between Lake Baikal and the Chinese frontier. John F. Stevens, chairman of the American Railway mission, reported this today to the state department. This may prevent Ambassador Francis from reaching Vladivostok.

GERMANS USING GAS ALONG ARMY FRONT; SAMMIES BECOME ACCUSTOMED TO WEAPON

Germans Continue Advance Into Russia and Preparations Are Made to Withstand a Siege and Stem the Tide of Invasion at Petrograd—Turks Reoccupy Caucasus Region and Are Massacring the Armenians—British in Palestine In Close Contact With Turks, Who Are Retreating Through Valley of the Jordan

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 4.—Continued preparatory movements on the part of the Germans along the western front are noted by the war department in its review of the military situation for the week ending March 2.

"The momentum of battle is increasing," the statement declares, citing three attempts by the enemy against lines held by American troops as an example of what is taking place "on a larger scale along the entire western front."

The definite announcement is made that American forces have taken over a sector northwest of Toul and that a number of detached units are in action in the Champagne.

Operations in the eastern theater are expected to effect events in France, through a modification of German plans, the review intimates. Six Teuton columns are operating in Russia and to only one of these the column moving toward Vitebsk is any opposition noted. Turkish forces advancing in the Caucasus are meeting with little resistance and are massacring Armenian residents of the districts recently taken from the Russians. The review follows:

"The third month of relative quiescence on the western front has come to a close. During this period both belligerent groups have been massing their forces.

"There is evidence that the enemy continues to bring up fresh units. Owing to transportation difficulties this has been a slow and laborious process.

"The allied war councils now in continuous session, assuring complete unity and flexibility of control.

"The British have extended their front.

"Our own forces have taken over a sector northwest of Toul. In addition a number of our detached units are in action in Champagne and the momentum of battle is increasing.

"We have but to note the occurrence of the past week in our own sector in Lorraine in order to gain an idea of what is taking place. Patrols have been very active. Early in the week the enemy made attempts to reach our line but was driven off by machine-gun fire. On March 1 the enemy developed a sharply-driven attack. After a short struggle the hostile detachment was repulsed.

"The Germans are now using gas along our front. Our men are becoming accustomed to this weapon. "Our gas-masks are sufficient protection. Our artillery was very busy shelling enemy positions and inflicting considerable damage on gun and mortar emplacements. "Important troop movements took place behind the German lines opposite our line. In spite of the low visibility hostile aircraft continues active and made frequent incursions over our lines.

"In the region of the Chemin-des-Dames lively encounters took place. A French raid against German outposts in which a number of American volunteers participated, was very successfully carried through.

"On February 28 the French executed a coup-de-main, destroying hostile defensive works and shelters near Aspach in upper Alsace. Small raids in Champagne and Lorraine were also recorded. The enemy also was driven back while attempting to react in the vicinity of Butte du Mesnil and the Chemin-des-Dames.

"The boldest enterprise undertaken by the enemy during the week took place north of Dixmude. Here after prolonged artillery preparations, the enemy endeavored to throw a bridge across the Yser. The Belgians successfully prevented six consecutive attempts to push this operation to a successful conclusion.

"The new trend of events in Russia has, no doubt, modified German plans to a certain degree. For the time being the enemy continues to advance eastward. Following the highways and railways six columns of invaders along a 700-mile front are operating in careful co-ordination. In the Estonia the enemy has reached a point approximately 100 miles from Petrograd. In Livonia, Turjev, 100 miles east of Riga, has been entered. The column moving on Vitebsk is advancing at an average rate of 16 miles daily and has passed beyond Pskov.

"This force has met with some opposition. After the capture of Minsk, the hostile army operating in this area, continued its advance and is apparently headed for Smolensk and its ultimate objective, should it continue to find its course unimpeded would be cut off and the possibility of occupying Moscow.

"The fifth column, operating in the Pripiet sector, is also converging on Smolensk with Moscow as a final objective. The sixth column, (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

CALL MADE FOR 10,000 WORKMEN BY THE GOVERNMENT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 4.—Call was issued today for ten thousand machinists, chauffeurs and other skilled workmen needed at once by the aviation section of the signal corps it was stated, and announcement was made that additional increments must be obtained from the same classes in the near future.

The degree to which the aviation program of the army depends upon highly skilled labor is shown by the statement that ninety-eight of every hundred men in the aviation section must be skilled in some branch of work.

"Men registered in the draft," said the announcement, "may be inducted into this service by applying to their local draft board. Men not registered may enlist at any recruiting office. They will be sent to San Antonio, Tex., for segregation by trades, followed by a brief course of instruction at the flying fields or at various factories and organized into squadrons mostly for service overseas."

"The present call is especially for machinists, automobile mechanics, engine repair men, gun smiths, chauffeurs, carpenters, blacksmiths, tinmiths, cabinet makers, electricians, coppersmiths, sheet metal workers, propeller makers, wireless operators and constructors, tailor, tent makers, sail makers, truck makers, vulcanizers, welders and masters, repairers and installers of magnetos, ignition systems, cameras and watches, clocks, instruments and typewriters."

GERMANY NOTIFIES SWEDEN SHE WILL OCCUPY FINLAND

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 4.—Germany's occupation of the Aland Islands is only a preliminary to the total occupation of Finland. Official dispatches to the Swedish legation today say, Germany has announced to the Stockholm foreign office her intention to occupy Finland and that Sweden has protested.

Germany advised Sweden, the dispatches say, that it was necessary to temporarily occupy Finland to restore order, but gave assurances that she had no intention to take permanent possession of the territory. Sweden protested also against the Aland Islands being placed in the war zone.

The occupation of the Aland Islands, the dispatches say, is to make them a base for supplying the German occupation of Finland. There are 500 Swedish troops on the islands for police purposes. The commander was notified by the German commander of his intentions, and while so far there has been no clash reported the Swedish troops have not been withdrawn and the feeling is described here as being very tense.

REDUCE TRAIN SCHEDULES.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 4.—Passenger train schedules between Chicago and St. Louis were ordered rearranged today by Director General Woodard to reduce from 15 to 10 the number of trains daily each way, effective March 17.

INTENSIVE WORK FOR SELECTS AT CAMP SHERMAN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., March 4.—With the coming of spring weather Ohio and western Pennsylvania selects are in line for training of the most intensive sort held back by the severe winter the officers and men are determined to make up for lost ground in a hurry, realizing that the call for active service abroad may come at any time now.

Officers and non-commissioned officers from the 10 divisional schools of instruction in special branches are being graduated every week in anticipation of the big training drive which is about to begin. Instruction in practically every branch of warfare on the western front is in store for the selects here so far as the facilities of the camp will permit, officers say.

Experts in each organization will be available in each of the special branches. Schools in the division and in the regiments are turning out men trained for field fortification work, machine gun work, for signaling and liaison, for sniping and intelligence, for bayonet and grenade work, for the automatic rifles, for bombing, for trench warfare, for military work, boxing, and in the use of the trench mortars. These men will teach the individual selects how to make the best use of the devices mentioned in actual fighting.

Cincinnati and southwestern Ohio selects today completed their work on the rifle-range, having required only 11 days to do all of their firing. Officers and men alike are jubilant over the results obtained. Toledoans and soldiers from the northwestern counties are scheduled to go on the range next. The 10 bands in the division, each of which has advanced claims of being the best in the organization, will compete in an official program to determine the best band here a week from Saturday. To encourage the playing of more familiar musical airs which were used in other wars in which the United States has been engaged, the following tunes will be played in each band: "Dixie," "Yankee Doodle," "The Marseillaise," "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Onward, Christian Soldiers," and possibly one or two more. Infantry bands will play first, followed by artillery, and all other bands.

Following the completion of a course in instruction in the handling of mail at the camp postoffice today, 28 selects were officially graduated and assigned to the postoffice for duty. Some of the men employed at the postoffice had been in the service before being drafted, while others had no experience whatever. They were taken from 11 organizations.

According to the postal authorities the daily average of incoming first and second-class mail is 40,000 pieces. Approximately 25,000 pieces of first and second-class mail are sent out by the men of the division each day, it is stated. Thousands of magazines are received every week to be distributed through the medium of postal authorities for use in the various Y. M. C. A. buildings and the Knights of Columbus hall. Many are shipped overseas to the American expeditionary forces in France.

Battery D of the 323rd field artillery, went to the artillery range today to begin its course of target firing. With the arrival of a quantity of ammunition for the heavy 4.7-inch howitzers Saturday it is planned to hold the triple barrage fire association as continuous will permit.

NEWARK MEN HAVE LEASED COAL LANDS; WILL DEVELOP SAME

Elmer J. Jones and Charles L. Yockey have leased twenty-eight acres of valuable coal land, known as the Old Olive farm, three miles west of Fultonham, in Muskingum county and owned by Mrs. Martha E. Hogrefe of this city for a period of four years. Mrs. Hogrefe will move to Denver, her former home, in the near future.

It is the intention of these men to develop this land to its full capacity. Four feet under the surface there is a six foot vein of coal and eight feet under this vein is a four foot vein and under the two veins there are eighteen inches of hard coal. Besides there are a number of producing oil wells on the place and they have secured oil leases as well as the coal. The four foot vein is opened now and the others will be developed as soon as the weather permits. A steam shovel and motor trucks will be placed in operation and the coal will be delivered locally as well as shipped. It is hoped that this project will be successful and help solve the fuel problem for the people of Newark next winter.

BULLETS FELL

(Continued from Page 1.) convenient to work and fight "like divers" as they say. A few men have been gassed slightly while adjusting their helmets but this is inevitable when gas shells are thrown a long distance behind the lines. A brigadier general and a major who were riding in an automobile on a tour of inspection a few days ago were gassed slightly when a shell burst within a hundred yards of their car. They suffered from head ache and slight nausea but otherwise there were no ill effects. An American brigadier general said today he had asked for an American division citation for each member of the raiding party of twenty-six of his men which assisted the French in the raid on Feb. 23 in which two German officers and twenty-one men were captured. Two officers and two men of the raiding party already have been decorated by the French with the war cross. This is the first request for honors which has been made for Americans in this sector.

The German war office bulletin last Friday said that near Chavignon, on the western sector of the Alsne front, German troops had forced their way into the Franco-American trenches and captured ten Americans and a few French prisoners. The French official statement of the same day in reporting the attack which occurred Thursday night said that two columns of the enemy had been thrown back with heavy losses. German prisoners were taken by the French.

SUNDAY SERVICES WEST SIDE CHURCH ARE WELL ATTENDED

The special service at the West Side Church of Christ were well attended yesterday.

At Sunday school 154 were present, followed at 10:30 by church service. The theme was: "Is Christianity a growing force in the world?" One encouraging feature of the service was that nearly all remained for the morning worship. The men's meeting at 2:30 was well attended and a splendid and helpful lecture on the subject: "Thou art a man" was given. A male quartette from the Central Church of Christ sang. The day closed with an inspiring service. The theme was "The Greatest Leap Known to the World," dealing with the restoration of primitive Christianity. The sermon was both educational and spiritual. One confession was made at the close of the service. Meetings will continue all week, beginning promptly at 7:15 o'clock each evening and Rev. Mr. Kellogg speaking.

MEN LEAVE FOR FORT OGLETHORPE OVER B. & O. ROAD

The six men, who are to fill the county's quota of men to be sent to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., to fill vacancies existing there, is composed of volunteers, with the exception of one man—Lester L. Lickie, Union order No. 247. The men, who volunteered to go with this quota are: Ralph Bishop, Alexandria, 278; Arthur Nichols, Alexandria, 582; Bert D. Thompson, Granville, 644; Guy Rodes, Granville, 118, and Granar Bishop, Alexandria, 1078. The alternates are: Frank McGruder, Utica; H. W. Stanley, Granville; Earl Ganabran, Croton; Frank Arnold, Croton; David McCoulsky and Guy Cruise.

The men will leave Newark Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock over the Baltimore & Ohio railroad for Fort Oglethorpe. The county board was unable to state what branch of the service the men will be placed in or the time when the remainder of the last 15 per cent of the first draft would be sent to camp, but expect instructions regarding the time the call will come sometime in the very near future.

"The Russians are believed to be preparing to stem the tide of invasion. Petrograd is being prepared to withstand a siege.

"In the Caucasus the region from the Lake of Van to the Black Sea is again in Turkish hands. In the district reconquered by the Turks it is stated that they are massacring the Armenians.

"In Palestine, the British are in close contact with the Turks who are retreating northward through the valley of the Jordan. In Mesopotamia the British are advancing in the Euphrates and have arrived in the vicinity of Hiti, which is reported to be evacuated by the Turks."

PASSENGER CLAIMS HE WAS FLEECE

The police department had a call at 2 o'clock to meet D. & O. train No. 63 from the east, and Officers Donnelly and Hurlbaugh met the train, where Vendendorck Doldorcas accused Benjamin Weiss and L. J. Sandford, passengers on the train with him, of robbing him of about $190.

All three men were taken to the city prison. Sandford gave his residence at St. Louis, Mo., while Weiss says he is from New York. Doldorcas lives in Bellare, O. Weiss and Sandford had about $157 on them when arrested.

IS IMPROVING.
Charles Eblon, who has been ill with spinal meningitis at his home in Riley street, is improving nicely, a fact which will be pleasing news to his many friends.

NUMBER CHANGES ARE BEING MADE OVER THE CITY

A number of business changes will be noted within the next month as many firms are contemplating changing their locations and several rooms that have been idle for some time are being leased.

Last week the Oldsmobile automobile agency leased the Robinson room in West Church street. This room was formerly occupied by the Apple Pie Brothers, plumbing and supply house.

Aural Sisters, military shop will move from the Y. M. C. A. corner to the room in West Church street now vacated by the T. A. Bazler undertaking firm. Mr. Bazler, who recently joined a partnership with George Bowers, is now located in the old Lingafelter home, corner of Church and Second street.

The Edwards Clothes Shop, a Columbus firm has leased the Smucker room in South Park Place, formerly occupied by the Walk-Over Shoe Shop.

Mr. Long of Long's "of course" is combining his two stores, and they will occupy the old Music Hall building in West Main street. The Long's Loan Store is already in the new location and the hardware store and dry goods department will be moved in a short time.

The Billingslea Ideal Exchange will move into the Edwards room in North Fourth street probably between April 1 and 15. A 47 foot kitchen will be added to the room, and this work will have to be completed first.

PRIVATE ESCAPES FROM GUARDHOUSE

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., March 4.—Private Archie Jenkins, aged 23, who was recently drafted at Springfield, O., and who was sentenced to two years in Fort Leavenworth prison and to be dishonorably discharged for rifling mail, escaped from the guardhouse here today. He is believed to have gone north. His parents live at Coalton, O.

STOLEN CAR HAS BEEN RECOVERED

The Buick car of James Fitzsimmons which was taken from in front of St. Francis de Sales church Friday night has been found in Columbus where it was abandoned.

JOHNSON LEAVES
FOR Y. M. C. A. HUT
BACK OF FIRST LINE.
The last word received from Frank L. Johnson, former secretary of the Y. M. C. A. here, but now in the same service in France was that he was leaving for the first line trenches. Mr. Johnson stated he was to be stationed in the Y. M. C. A. hut, just back of the first line trenches.

PICTURE WINS PRIZE.
A picture of two little boys entitled "Playmates" appeared in the magazine section of yesterday's Cleveland Plain Dealer, and was awarded third prize in the amateur photographers' contest. ## TO GIVE DETAILS OF CASUALTIES AT FRONT

American Red Cross Organizes Bureau to Keep Relatives of Soldiers Informed.

To give relatives of American soldiers details of casualties at the front, the American Red Cross has organized at national headquarters a bureau of communication, of which William R. Castle, Jr., formerly assistant dean of Harvard college and editor of the Harvard Graduates' Magazine, is director. This bureau supplements in a personal and humanitarian way the reports of the statistical division of the war department which gives to relatives official notice when a soldier is reported killed, wounded or missing.

The anxiety which naturally results from the official report to "relatives" that a soldier has been "wounded" or is "missing" will, as far as possible, be dispelled by the bureau, which will advise in detail the nature and extent of the wound, and will gather evidence from comrades in arms and at the hospitals and rest camps regarding those reported "missing."

Any information of interest or consolation to relatives thus obtained will be transmitted to them through personal letters, while messages from the wounded will be conveyed through this same agency.

The information on which the bureau will base its reports is gathered through a central office in Paris, under the direction of E. Gerry Chadwick of New York, aided by Rev. Robert Davis of Eaglewood, N. J., and thirty assistants stationed at the base hospitals and rest camps where soldiers are generally returned following important engagements.

With the increase of the American forces and participation in the war, this number will have to be greatly increased. The information will for the most part be forwarded from the Paris office to this country by mail.

For the present the bureau is reporting on all cases that come to its attention. However, it is probable that with the increase of reports from the front, information will be sent only to relatives requesting it, except in cases of those imprisoned or reported "missing."

CRITICAL SITUATION OF PUBLIC UTILITIES

They May Suffer Collapse as Railroads Already Have, Greatly to the Disadvantage of the Public.

Columbus, March 4.—The appeals to State Public Utilities Commissions for increase in rates by the public service corporations shows them to be in imminent danger of paralysis such as the railroads now are suffering.

The difficulty in the case of each utility is from the same cause—a selling price for service fixed at a time before the war had increased all costs by half and doubled many of them.

The gas, telephone, power and traction companies are showing by their books the increased cost of operating and of maintenance, to an extent which has put many of them on the red side of the ledger.

With nearly all of them the greatest cost item is coal.

Previous to the outbreak of the European war coal cost $1.90 a ton delivered. The average cost now is $3.43 and the freight charge is paid by the purchaser. And, too, when the price was $1.90, screened coal was delivered. Now it is "run-of-mine" with slate, stone, earth, dust and all. This difference in quality makes a heat unit cost double what it cost when the price to consumers was fixed.

Electrical power for light and heat and traction, and telephones is distributed through copper wire. Previous to three years ago, the price of copper for this use ranged between 12 and 15 cents. It now is 28 cents, and recently a Columbus company was forced to buy $24,000 worth at 23 cents.

The world can't work, or live, without the public utilities. Their existence is menaced by doubled costs. Like any other business, they have something to sell—service. Like other business enterprises, the selling price must be based upon the cost of production. The manufacturer and merchant pass the increased cost of production on to the consumer. Unless the utility can do the same it must go out of business.

What should be done about it? No satisfying answer to this question has yet been uttered.

Companies have agreements with the public for a price for service, fixed for a term of years, or their rates have been fixed by municipal ordinances, based on pre-war cost of production.

City officials say "a contract is a contract." So it is, but enforcing a contract which will wreck a service company will bring a public calamity. In many instances the service companies, at the present rates, can earn no margin for extensions, or repairs, for all income must go into cost of operation and many are not earning even operating expenses. A concern doing unprofitable business can't borrow money to tide it over.

The quality of service will deteriorate, necessarily, and then we'll all kick about it.

Utility enterprises have certainly fallen upon evil days, and are wrestling with problems of which their patrons are wholly unaware. The market price of utility securities has steadily declined during the last two or three years, and many of them have no market value at all.

It is not alone those whose money is in these properties who are interested. If they fail and the public is deprived of their services, it will be the greater sufferer; for there will be no inducement for others to take the hazard of attempting to furnish the service. These problems require some sane thinking on the part of both producer and consumer.

THE PUFFED AND PURPLED "PLUTE."

Of course there was a time, every soap box orator told us about it, when the public utility manager or stockholder was looked upon as a puffed and purpled plutocrat. He rode in his limousine and drank his champagne out of quart tankards. He was all encrusted with diamonds and his wife was trying to "reduce." But, "them was the halcyon days of the old regime," as a Cincinnati statesman once remarked.

Now, if you see a wan, shrinking, shivering little man edging along the dark wall of the alley and shuddering at each strident sound—that's a public utility man.

It isn't exactly fair to advance the dictum that all haggard, wan, pale, shrinking, nervous men are of the public utility brood, but it is a safe assertion that all and several of the public utility owners, managers and high officials are wan and haggard in these days of stress.

Of course, in those good old days it was a perfectly proper proceeding to cuss the gas man, damn the telephone service and enjoy a paroxysm of rage when the inter-urban car was late. No more.

It really isn't done. The manufacturer of pink pills, or beaded raiment, may complain if he will, of the war stringency and its withering effect upon his business, but he can advance the prices of pink pills and make it harmonize with the cost of tenderloin steak. Cannot the gas man advance the price of gas to keep step with bacon and eggs? Yes, he cannot.

The prices of public service being fixed for a term of years cannot be raised to meet the doubled costs created by the war.

Let us hope that every day'll be headless by and by.

RUTH LUDWIG MAKES A HIT AT MANSFIELD

A minstrel show for the benefit of the Red Cross was given at Mansfield Wednesday and Thursday evenings under the auspices of the Mansfield Times & Rubber Co., at the opera house in that city. The directors were Berrian and Sank, well known in this city and who directed the Eagle minstrel two years ago.

The house was sold out entire for both nights and in order to accommodate those who had purchased tickets it was necessary to again repeat the entertainment Saturday night. Little Ruth Ludwig, formerly of this city, participated in the entertainment and the Mansfield News said of her clever dancing:

"The olio opened with a dancing number by little Ruth Ludwig, a Mansfield girl whose work has been enthusiastically received by the public in the past, and who contributed a distinctively pleasing bit to the minstrel program."

The chief entertainer of the show was Marty Hogan, and he made good in every way. Miss Ludwig was one recipient of a number of handsome floral pieces, and "Pop" Sank was remembered with a big bouquet presented by Mansfield Lodge, No. 46, whose orchestra furnished the musical program.

The tenth annual debate of the Central Ohio Debating League will be held Friday evening, March 8th, at the high school auditorium. The question to be debated is: "Resolved, that student self-government should be in the administrative system of the high school." The Newark high school affirmative team will debate with the negative team from Mt. Vernon high school, while the local negative team will go to Zanesville to meet the high school team of that city.

Mr. Addison J. Williams writes Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York as follows:

"Regarding the 'J. B. L. Cascade,' I feel it is one of the indispensable articles and should be in every home. I have not taken $10 worth of medicine since obtaining it—about 9 years."

You can be free of biliousness and constipation, with all the ills which they produce, by an occasional internal bath. The 'J. B. L. Cascade' administered three or four times a day, in combination of Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D., of New York, a specialist on internal bathing.

By the proper application of Nature's cure—warm water—it keeps the lower intestines free of all poisonous waste, and permits every function to work in harmony and without clogging—hence makes one consistently bright, capable and well.

Fredrick Phumason, R. L. Williams, prop., 222 Hudson avenue, corner Oak street, Newark, O., will be glad to show you, explaining the 'J. B. L. Cascade' to you, and will also give you free on request an interesting and authoritative book, 'Why Man of Today is Only a Percent Efficient,' written by Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell.

Ask for it today while it is fresh in your mind—Adv't.

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM.
"The Spy." The Auditorium today and tomorrow is offering Dustin Farnum in "The Spy," a timely American drama, exposing the operations of the German secret police, this is a William Fox special. As is well known the United States government has appropriated millions of dollars in recent months to fight the remarkably efficient German spy system that was in America. At present there is not a brick, a tunnel of any size, a munition factory or public utility of any importance, that is not guarded by Federal troops, the police or private guards. All of these facts have prompted William Fox to produce "The Spy," written by one of America's best writers, George Bronson Howard, and in "The Spy," which exposes German plots for the United States—plots that for a long time have been a parallel in the history of the world.

It was not secret that the Kaiser has upwards of 10,000 trained agents in America, and that they were in America months before the war. Why, even today it is said that Washington is full of spies and Washington is full of facts about the breed that would startle the average American citizen. It is a matter of public information that the designs for the mighty battleships were stolen from the navy office at the capitol. And at the time the German foreign office calmly admitted that it instigated the Mexican-Japanese plot against the United States.

In the closely guarded state and war departments in Washington the German spy system is a thing of which the officials of the United States government are very anxious to keep secret. The New York newspapers exposed the plots of a certain German agent, who with other German spies planned to foment strikes, control munition factories, to buy up American newspapers, to corner the supply of rubber and to control the Wright aeroplane factory, and to destroy the Panama Canal.

Edward the chess and hells of the nest of German spies. It was proven that over a million dollars in gold was offered the officials of the United States government to inaugurate a national dock strike. Secret wireless plants, control of food supplies, bread famines, juggling with Government taxation plans, etc., are but a small part of the German spy plans in this country. The German spy is everywhere. Even in the rich man's club it was shown that the waiters were in the employ of the Kaiser. All of these intimate facts George Bronson Howard has known and because of his connection at one time with the government at Washington and because of his knowledge of the German secret police system, he has written this wonderful photoplay.

It was the show of the day only at the Auditorium together today with the Mack Sennett two reel comedy, "It Pays to Exercise," and the Hearst Pathe News, which is full of most timely national news.

"Rimrock Jones." Handsome Wallace Reid, the popular player who has appeared so often with Geraldine Farrar in that star's pictures, such as "Camille," "The Woman God Forgot" and others, is starring at the Auditorium theatre Wednesday in "Rimrock Jones," his latest Paramount production. A breezy story of an Arizona copper mine, "Rimrock Jones" fairly breathes the spirit of the cowboy and the glove-fitting vehicle for the energetic young star.

Pretty Ann Little, who supported him in "San Francisco," plays the leading feminine role as Mary Fortune, the deaf girl stenographer. The rest of the cast includes a host of other players, including a clever little Japanese actor, George Kuwa. "Rimrock Jones" has found a copper mine in Arizona and a brave cowboy has grown up around his claim. Andrew McLean, a clever crook lawyer of the town, devises a plan whereby the legal trick the lawyer has the holdings from Rimrock.

Thus it is, that destitute and penniless beauty, who has a hanging on in the town. His one-time friends desert him and only Mary Fortune, the stenographer, stands by. These two together fight the cunning combined wiles of a Wall Street financier, two of the country's well-known lawyers, and one of the crookedest men in town. McLean, the lawyer, having been killed in a fight with Rimrock although the latter was acquitted of the murder as a result of the fight.

Mr. unknown to Rimrock, has taken the long journey to New York and had specialists perform an operation on her ears which has restored her hearing, and it is, by pretending still to be deaf, that she plays the final winning card in the game.

Director Donald Crisp has secured some unusual effects in this picture, including magnificent western scenery, and a number of the most beautiful and interesting scenes in the picture.

"A Modern Musketeer." In the "A Modern Musketeer," released by Artcraft, which will be shown at the Auditorium theatre Friday and Saturday, the leading feminine role, though Miss Daw has recently passed her sixteenth birthday, she has already become one of the most popular players appearing in pictures. She inherits her histrionic ability from her father, who played with the famous "The Four Musketeers," and other well-known stage celebrities.

A number of the scenes in "A Modern Musketeer" were staged at the Grand Canyon of Arizona, and at Gallup, N. M. Many of the scenes were used in the picture "The Son of Democracy," which is being shown at the Auditorium theatre on Friday and Saturday.

win Booth was a short man, that Richard Mansfield and Thomas Keene were not tall, and I thought that I could so impress an audience that, while watching many many figures, through the spaces and poses of a stage scene, they might possibly be so overcome with admiration that they would not think of height. That is one of the beauties of youth—the sheer nerve of it."

Wednesday and Thursday. "Gaiety of Gadness" is the attractive title of the newest World-Picture Brady-Made in which charming little Madge Evans is starred. The story is a modern one showing little Madge in a particularly appealing role. It is one of the very best parts that Madge has yet had and that is saying a great deal. The supporting company is a particularly large and capable one and the settings are everything that could be desired. Altogether it is one of the most entertaining and delightful of pictures.

GRAND. Mildred Manning, co-star with Wallace Reid, in "The Marriage Speculation," which will be seen in the Grand theatre on Monday and Tuesday in a vigorous and interesting American melodrama, whose favorite role is that of misguided youth, whose reformations are brought about by the love of a worthy girl. He is especially well cast in this picture, where a girl barters love for education and a place in business in return for which she is asked to marry a rich man. He is the sweetheart of the girl. His ambitions are fired by her action and when her love for him, he has the money to meet all her obligations and marry her himself. Charles Kent is the chief support in the picture.

ALHAMBRA. Tonight and tomorrow, John Cumberland, whose work in support of Madge Kennedy in "Fair and Warner" won him international recognition as a favorite of the very highest standing and best, is giving a picture work in "Baby Mine," to be seen at the Alhambra theatre on Monday and Tuesday. He is especially well cast in this picture, where a girl barters love for education and a place in business in return for which she is asked to marry a rich man. He is the sweetheart of the girl. His ambitions are fired by her action and when her love for him, he has the money to meet all her obligations and marry her himself. Charles Kent is the chief support in the picture.

GIVE KAISER NO QUARTER.

It is to the United States that you must give quarters, halves and dollars. Later they will be transformed into something that can be given to the Kaiser against his will. If you have a quarter lying about loosely, don't hesitate. Change it into a stamp and affix it to your Thrift card.

It is the steady stream of deposits into banks that keeps the life blood of trade circulating. In the same fashion, the steady stream of savings into the national treasury will keep the army and navy well-clothed, well-fed and well-armed. Every time you give a quarter to the war savings organization you perform a deed that helps yourself, our fighters, and the cause of humanity.

Every silver piece is a bullet fired against autocracy. The aim of the war savings campaign is to create a community of savers in every section of the United States. The thought should be kept in mind that "rainy days" are sure to come and that it is the duty of every person to provide for future needs. It can be done in no easier or better way than to open a war savings account by buying Thrift and War stamps regularly out of one's earnings. Decide how much you can save then do it religiously and invest regularly through the year in war stamps. Thus you are laying up money for your future use and at the same time you are helping the government to win the war. Keep in mind the fact that if you should need your money before January 1, 1923, Uncle Sam will pay it back to you with interest, if you will give your postmaster 10 days' notice.

BIT OF FINANCIAL HISTORY.

The credit of the United States was so high and unquestionable that in 1900, two years after the Spanish war, 2 per cent bonds were offered at par and oversubscribed. This is a financial performance no other nation ever equaled.

United States 4 per cent bonds in 1888 sold as high as 130 and in 1901 brought 139 7-8 on the stock market.

The United States has never defaulted on any of its bonds. Not one of its bondholders has ever lost a cent of principal or interest except those who voluntarily have taken losses by selling their bonds in a period of temporary price depression. One hundred cents on the dollar, principal and interest, has the United States always paid.

Back of the $250,000,000,000 of our national resources stand the rugged honesty of America. Liberty Loan Bonds and Savings Stamps are the safest security in the world.

Our idea of a soft snap is not trying to nurse Theodore Roosevelt the first day he gets down stairs.

DELAYS IN SHIPBUILDING.

The obstacles encountered by our shipbuilding program seem without limit and have about exhausted patience. First the program was delayed by the row over the type of ships to be constructed and other differences. Now it is the incessant friction between capital and labor. The companies say many of the laborers are slacking and soldiering on the job, and that the more they are paid, the less work they do. The workmen say that some of the companies are using the emergency to make a lot of money for themselves.

Our war work can proceed only so fast as our ships are built. The more the ships are delayed, the longer the war will be, the more will be the loss of life among our soldiers, and the heavier will be the burden of debt we have to take on. Everyone on the shipping job should realize this thoroughly.

There is no time for either capitalists or workpeople to use emergency to secure gains they could not get in peace times. In so far as any of them do seek to take unfair advantage, they will incur the enmity of the entire American people. The government should promote an extensive campaign of patriotic education in all the shipbuilding centers. It should send to these localities some of its best speakers and plenty of patriotic motion pictures.

The shipbuilders should be helped to see what a terrible thing the German menace is. They should be shown how the German government is the most brutal the world has ever seen, that it has trampled on all laws and agreements, and that nothing in the world is safe if it should win the war.

If there is a slacker spirit among the shipbuilders, it will be much more effective to appeal in this way to their reason, than to try to drive them. Let them see that their interests demand the speedy construction of those ships, and things will begin to hum in the shipyards.

While the shipbuilding plants can't get workmen on account of the shortage of houses nearby, thousands of automobiles have been lying stored up for the winter and could transport the workers 20 miles each way a day.

The people who complain because a train is 30 minutes late might like it better with our boys in France, where it takes three or four days to travel a few hundred miles.

TOO BIG TO WORRY ABOUT.

(Columbus Dispatch.)
A business man in this city has it right; he says the war is too big for him to worry about it. He had rather worry about the smaller things of life, and leave this big thing for others to puzzle their heads over.

The war is too big for any man to understand it. It involves too much wealth, and too much territory, and too many human beings. There isn't a man on the face of the earth today who knows what is going to happen tomorrow in connection with the war. It has changed its phase half a dozen times since it came upon the world; in fact, the phase of the war is changing all the time, with no one to tell us today what it will be tomorrow. Then why worry about it—or about when it will end or what form it will assume in the future, or whether it will continue for one year or a hundred? It is being fought out by brave men. Able statesmen are studying it. Great brains are employed upon its every feature. Mighty armies are commanded by mighty men of military experience. Why, then, should an individual in the country worry about it?

The plain truth is the war has made fatalists of about all the thinking people of this old world. It has certainly made fatalists of every man engaged in it. There is less worry among those in the trenches, where the shells are bursting about the heads of the soldiers, than there is right here in this peaceful city.

Too big to worry about! We thank the gentleman for his wisdom and philosophy. It is the only way for one to maintain his sanity in these trying times. For if one sits down and worries about the war, and tries to figure out what is going to happen to the world or to the various nations of the world, he will go mad in a day. Stand erect; hold the chin in; throw the shoulders back; breathe deeply, and look men in the eye while doing your duty as a citizen of this, the best country in the world. But don't worry about the war; it is too big to worry about.

JAPAN IS ALERT.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
To one of the entente allies in particular German occupation of Russia conveys a menace not to be minimized. Japan has done much for the cause of world democracy since the war began. She may, it is suggested, now be forced to assume a new role against Prussianism.

"Should the Russo-German peace actually be concluded," the Japanese ambassador in London is quoted as saying, "it goes without saying that Japan will take the most decided steps." What these steps might be the ambassador does not explain. Elsewhere the suggestion is offered that the Japanese may find it desirable because of German activity in Russia, to send troops across Siberia to take up the burden of battle which the pacifist Bolsheviks refuse to assume.

It is generally agreed that Japan shall be arbiter in the far east. What happens in and to Siberia concerns

Tokio most intimately. A Berlin-to-Vladivostok zone of Prussian "influence" would be as disastrous to the peace of the world as a Berlin-to-Bagdad zone toward which German statesmen have been working for decades. Further, it would be a menace to Japan which Tokio has been quick to see.

The difficulty of transporting an adequate Japanese force to the battle front has heretofore been one of the reasons assigned for the empire's non-participation upon European soil. The distance is great and the trans-Siberian railroad has sadly deteriorated under the strain of war's demands. But Germany has now carried the fighting front hundreds of miles to the eastward and Japan's interests are assailed as they have not been before.

With a sufficient Japanese army in Russia defending the former domain of the czar from German control the situation upon that front would immediately assume an entirely different aspect from the standpoint of America and our allies. It is by no means inconceivable that difficulties which seemed insuperable to the government at Tokio before may now appear much less serious in view of the new menace represented by the Germans marching virtually unimpeded upon the Russian capital.

Whatever be the outcome, it is evident that Japan is alert to its own interests and to the interests of its allies. A Siberia controlled from Berlin would not only be a menace to the peace of the far east and to the peace of Japan; it would be a menace likewise to the peace of the United States.

THE PRESIDENT'S EXERCISES.

President Wilson takes a number of physical exercises indoors, none of which has been generally known, and very few if any have ever been described in print. Some of these exercises are taken as a substitute for the outdoor recreations at times when weather conditions are too extreme. But the major part of them, and especially the more unusual of these exercises, are regularly practiced as a part of his daily routine. As a matter of fact they are pretty closely dovetailed in with his office work. Principally as a substitute for the outdoor exercises, Mr. Wilson practices a course of the more familiar setting-up exercises or calisthenics, for the development and strengthening of the muscles, particularly of the abdominal walls, the back and chest.

One of the President's main exercises, taken whenever the occasion presents itself, is that of deep breathing, and as a result of this his chest now is as perfectly developed as that of an athlete.

Also, a member of his family told me of some of the unusual movements which the President "performs," mostly when in his study of just "about the house." For instance, he will stand with his back to the mantel of a fireplace, lean back until his head touches some rigid support and then turn and twist and roll first his head and then his shoulders and finally his whole body about for a minute or more at a time, bringing every muscle of his body into play. Or he will stand in the middle of a room and swing his arms about like an animated flail, twisting his body into all sorts and manner of playful contortions, much after the fashion of a school boy at play.

One of the most interesting of the President's exercises is that known as the Mueller Finger Movement. The President does not use this so much as a "set-time" part of his physical "training," but rather as a relaxation "from inaction" while at work at his desk, as a nerve-awakening, muscle-warming exercise. While engaged in dictating, writing or study he frequently will stand up and take this exercise, after which he will continue his work, apparently refreshed and rested.—From "The President's Health Message," by Richard M. Winans in March Physical Culture.

HONOR FOR WM. A. ASHBROOK

Hon William A. Ashbrook has just been honored by the Ohio delegation in congress, having been elected member of the Democratic National Congressional committee. Mr. Ashbrook's selection was predicted several days ago when Representative White, withdrew from the race and the Seventeenth district member was chosen without opposition.

The selection of Mr. Ashbrook was a distinct compliment for our popular congressman. His years of service at Washington have placed Mr. Ashbrook at the head of important committees in the House and have put him in position to render real service to the people of the Seventeenth district and the state of Ohio as well as the nation. Mr. Ashbrook is always "on the job" and he has the reputation of being more prompt in his correspondence and more attentive to matters brought to his attention by his constituents in respect of party, than any member of the House. Many friends here in Newark and over the whole district will be glad to know of the honor that has come to Representative Ashbrook.

Oh, girls! I had just been thinking and thinking what I could do to economize now that Mr. Hootie and everybody makes such a point of it, and I decided that I could do my washing and ironing. So I started in bright and early Monday morning and I rubbed and rubbed till I used up three bars of soap—twenty-five cent toilet soap, too, because I didn't have any other kind. And my hands were just a mass of blisters. Jack came home at noon and I had forgotten all about the time so he had to go down to get his lunch. But finally I got the clothes out on the line, though I must say that even after all that work they didn't look very white and they were streaked a good deal with bluing. So so tired I couldn't get dinner. I had ordered a taxi and we went down to the Sherwood. The next morning I was so sore and stiff that I couldn't get up and Jack insisted on sending for Dr. Rank who said I'd better stay in bed several days if I didn't want to get pneumonia. That what is probably the tallest chimney in the world was recently built at Saxonoski, Japan? It was erected for a copper smelter and is of concrete. It is 570 feet high, 26 1-4 feet inside diameter at the top and 42 feet in diameter at the base. The chimney was carried to that great height in order to convey the poisonous fumes from the smelter to an altitude where they would not injure vegetation. ## VAST STORE OF FOOD VALUE IN FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

Scientific Tests Prove That It Is
6 Times More Nourishing Than Milk
7 1/2 " " " " Oysters
2 1/2 " " " " Steak
5 " " " " Cod Fish

That Father John's Medicine contains a vast store of food value and strength-building, energy-producing elements is established by recent scientific tests. This rich nourishment is in a form which is more easily taken up by the system than the common foods we eat and has many times greater food value.

Father John's Medicine is six times more nourishing than pure milk; it contains two and one-half times as much nourishment as an equal quantity of beef steak. Father John's Medicine is seven and one-half times more nourishing than an equal quantity of oysters and five times more nourishing than cod fish.

These scientific tests made by expert chemists prove beyond question the very great food value of this old-fashioned, pure, wholesome medicine for colds, coughs and body-building. Because it supplies the nourishment which you do not obtain from your food and supplies it in the form which the system most easily takes up and turns into tissue, muscle, flesh and strength, Father John's Medicine has had more than sixty years of success as a food tonic for those who are weak and run-down.

In our daily lives we burn up a certain amount of energy or tissue and we must have a nourishing, food-tissue builder to make good this steady wear and tear on the system. While the food we eat is changed into this tissue or energy the digestive system is in healthy condition; when we become weakened, over-tired or run-down we do not get the required amount of nourishment from our food, and it is at such a time that the wonderful strength-building tissue-forming elements of Father John's Medicine prove their greatest value.

It is guaranteed that Father John's Medicine positively does not contain any alcohol or any dangerous, habit-forming drugs or opiates. It is a pure and wholesome, nourishing tonic food—a doctor's prescription, not a patent medicine. Begin taking it today.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and so weak at times I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. POULTRY NOTES

WHAT AND HOW TO FEED.
(By H. A. Nourse, Editor Poultry Herald.)

When fresh eggs are scarce and high in price every poultry-keeper wants to know how to feed his hens to produce the most eggs and still how to feed them without unnecessary expense. Feeding which produces good results is almost invariably profitable, but if anything is fed which does not help to produce such results the feeding of it costs should be dispensed with, if it costs anything.

It is a good plan to follow nature's methods as far as possible. We know that in the natural order of things hens laid only in warm weather and that at such times they could find wild grains, seeds, tender roots, bugs, worms and insects, tender green grass, small sharp pieces of gravel, etc., and this made up a ration which sustained the body of the wild hen and provided, in addition, the material of which to make eggs.

In order to get the best results in egg-production in winter we must copy as near as we can the natural method. To take the place of the seeds, wild grain, etc., we feed the grains of commerce, including corn, wheat, oats, barley and rye, both whole and ground, and in the case of corn, cracked. The ground grains are mixed with water or milk to a crumbly state and fed in troughs in the form of damp mash, once a day, as much as the flock will eat up in a few minutes. Sometimes these mixtures are fed dry in hoppers and kept before the fowls constantly or part of each day. The whole and cracked grains are fed in a litter of straw, hay, leaves or something of that kind, so that the fowls will be obliged to scratch them out and in that way obtain exercise which in nature they obtained by running about in search of food.

To take the place of bugs, worms and insects, which nature provided to make up the meat part of the ration, we furnish commercial beef scraps, cut fresh bone, fish scraps, meat trimmings from the kitchen, etc. Usually the beef or fish scraps is mixed in the mash and the cut bone and meat trimmings fed separately or mixed with a little bran, to serve as a lunch. To take the place of the tender green grass and other succulent vegetable material which the hens found in the fields, in poor weather laying period, we provide cabbage, mangel beets, turnips, pumpkins, apples and steamed, green clover and alfalfa. Of these the clover and alfalfa are usually mixed with the mash when the mash is fed damp, or they may be fed separately. Sometimes clover and alfalfa is put into the pens dry and the fowls pick off the leaves. To take the place of sharp gravel, which serves as grit, we furnish the commercial grit made for that purpose and we keep it before them in boxes or hoppers so that they can supply themselves at will.

RECORDS FOR MARCH

Love of home-land is the keynote of the newest songs in which the voices of Columbia artists are heard. The March group of records contains "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," sung by Lucy Vernon; "Dear Little Shamrock," Vernon Stiles; "My Heart's Tonight in Old New Hampshire," Campbell and Burr; "I'm All Bound Round With the Mason Dixie Line," Al Johnson; "I'll Take You Back to Italy," from "Jack O' Lantern," sung by Brice and King; and a fine rendition of "Home, Sweet Home" by the Columbia Stellar Quartette.

Songs of wartime which have the real ring of "carry on" are "Do Something," whose appeal is sounded in the rich baritone of Arthur Fields; "Liberty Bell," sung by the Peerless Quartette; "That's a Mother's Liberty Loan," Greek Evans.

A noteworthy vocal record is the "Prologue" from "Pagliacci," sung by Stracciari, the Chicago Opera baritone. His performance is distinguished alike by the ease and flexibility he displays in the introduction, and the emotional intensity with which he endows the tragic climax.

Tamaki Miura, the Japanese soprano, sings with Haeodora Kikkay the "Love Duet" from "Mme. Butterfly." Brilliant bits of color are contributed by Lacalle's Spanish Orchestra, which plays two numbers from "The Land of Joy," the Spanish musical revue which scored such an instantaneous hit in New York. One of these is "Alexandria," a native table dance, and the other "Los Crotalos," a tambourine dance. Another musical organization which makes its Columbia debut is Joseph C. Smith's Dance Orchestra, which contributes "Calico," a fox-trot, and "When You Come Back," a one-step. Smith is one of the best-known stage exponents of society dancing, and his orchestra plays dance music under the baton of a master of rhythm.

Popular songs are well represented. Sam Ash sings "Sailing Around" and "Yock-A-Hilo Town," Henry Burr gives the newest soldier's good-bye song, "Sweet Little Buttercup," Collins and Harlan are heard in the jazz song hit, "Darktown Strutters Ball," and two other songs dealing with jazz melody are contributed by Samuel Ash, with "Cleopatra Had a Jazz Band," and Gene Green, "Alexander's Got a Jazz Band Now."

A new series of records especially for children is introduced with two "Bedtime Stories" told in the voice of their author, Thornton W. Burgess. One is "Johnny Chuck Finds the Best Things in the World," and the other "The Christmas Joy of the Beautiful Pine."

BOY SCOUTS TO BOOST THE W. S. S. CAMPAIGN

Ohio Members to Solicit C. O. D.
Orders on Red Card.

Columbus, O.—(Special.)—Ohio forces of the Boy Scouts of America, following a recent appeal by the secretary of the treasury, are participating in a drive throughout the state to boost the sale of War Savings and Thrift Stamps. The Ohio canvass will be conducted in conjunction with the nationwide campaign by the Boy Scouts, who have constituted themselves a sales force and will remain active through the remainder of the W. S. S. drive.

A unique plan of identifying stamp sales made by the scouts has been devised by the treasury and postoffice departments. This will be done through a specially printed franked red post card, which has been authorized for the exclusive use of the scouts. Aside from this, special awards have been offered by the government to the boys who are most successful in selling War Savings and Thrift Stamps. The foremost recognition for services to be awarded is an emblem following the design of the "Ace" medal, given to the most daring French aviators.

FANS ANTICIPATE SPLENDID MATCH AT AUDITORIUM

Con Albright of Rochester, N. Y., will arrive in the city tonight to begin his fight for the world's championship with Paul Gower at the Auditorium theater Thursday evening, the seat sale for which opens at the box office tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

A large delegation of out of town fans will be present to witness the two athletes clash in the ring. Liberty bonds will be sold for the first time at 7:15 to 9:15, and second four at 9:15 to 9:45.

Bowser has been training daily and his handlers stated today to the Advocate that he was in the best condition of his mat career. The local wrestler has won over Albright, but it is known that the New Yorker has become one of the best middle weight men in the country and has secured decisions over him in the past.

Albright's style of wrestling is clever and he puts up a clean, sportlike exhibition, and for that reason is a great favorite with the followers of the mat. The same can be said of Gower and the fans can rest assured that they will see one of the best and fastest bouts which has ever taken place in the city.

Bowser has arranged for several clever preliminaries and the entertainment will be a classy one. Several local acts who are fast becoming popular will meet out of town talent and the Auditorium orchestra will furnish a special musical program.

Bowser is working out at his gym where he takes on all comers and as many as care for a tryout. His road work is done at morning and he is taking from five to eight miles in an easy gallop every morning.

Seats may be reserved by phone by calling up 1014 E. 12th street, or by calling at the Auditorium theater any time after 10 a. m. Tuesday.

MANY PEOPLE WAIT
Until their wall paper becomes so soiled that they are compelled to re-paper. Then they realize their mistake in postponing a pleasure, which for a small expense, they could have long enjoyed—the pleasure of attractive surroundings.
Do not make the same mistake.
Keep your walls looking cheerful

SPLENDID ADDRESS

AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

BY REV. G. B. SCHMITT

An illustrated sermon-lecture,
"Temples Destroyed by the Huns," was given last night at St. Paul's church by the pastor, the Rev.
George Bohon Schmitt, to a large and appreciative audience. The slides used for this occasion are issued by the Publicity Bureau at Washington, and the orders are coming in about one thousand a day. In fact, the demand is so great, had it not been for the courtesy shown by Congressman William A. Ashbrook, it would have been impossible to show these slides in Newark before the latter part of July.

The scenes depicted are before the attack of the Huns and after. There are 50 views, showing temples in France and Belgium. They show plainly that it was not accidental, but deliberate and well-planned.
For a nation, calling itself civilized, to stoop to such acts of vandalism in destroying these beautiful temples of worship is beyond comprehension.
Works of art were practiced on these buildings, inside and out, that will be almost impossible to reproduce.
Stained glass of art, which today is not made, was totally destroyed.
Acts as these, to intimidate the enemy, have counted for naught. It only brings home to the rest of the world the real character of the Huns, and what must be expected if the world is not made safe for democracy.

These slides will be shown on different occasions and it will be time well spent to see them. Rev. Mr.
Schmitt will give the lecture and show the pictures at Hebron tomorrow night.

C. H. Spencer gave a short address on the Thrift campaign at the close of the sermon-lecture.

DEAD HISTORIAN

FORMER RESIDENT

OF GRANVILLE, O.

San Francisco, March 4.—Hubert Howe Bancroft, America's most famous and prolific writer of history, died at Walnut Creek, 20 miles east of here, Saturday night, at the age of 86 years.

Bancroft was a native of Ohio, born at Granville, where he spent his early life as a farm and tannery hand, on May 5, 1832. His education was extremely limited and up to his fortieth year, could hardly more read or write. In his early manhood he came west and located here, opening bookstore, after having clerked in a similar establishment in Buffalo.

In 1856 he conceived the idea of writing a comprehensive history of California, when, as he himself confessed many years later, he had never even attempted the simplest manuscript. To that end he began collecting books, manuscripts and newspapers.

So absorbed did he become in the search for material that 10 to 12 years later he had collected thousands of volumes of books and stacks of manuscripts and newspaper files.
Still he had written nothing and could not, for he did not know what was in the books and manuscripts.

Finally, in 1871, the passion to write the conduct of his business over to others and at the age of 40 set himself in earnest to the task. Long since the plan to write only of California had enlarged until it included the Pacific Coast regions of the whole North and South American continents.

Soon despair seized upon Bancroft, for he discovered by tests that the mere work of reading, digesting and notating his material unaided would require at least four hundred years. For a time his despondency amounted almost to insanity. Then he considered the expedient of employing assistants and made many experiments, finally generally resulting. On one occasion he threw into the furnace as worthless 25 reams of manuscript, representing the work of six or eight men for months. A noted mediaeval scholar, employed at a high wage, was unable to help him.

Persisting, the would-be historian
finally perfected a system of card-indexing which proved successful.
Thereafter, he trained and employed hundreds of assistants, the services of most of whom amounted to collaborators. For the vast notes thus accumulated, Bancroft finally approached his real task, he having learned, painfully in the meantime, something of the art of writing.

More difficulties arose. Bancroft had selected Peru as the subject of his first endeavor and had decided that its history should begin with the Spanish conquest. Suddenly, when the work was half complete,
he rejected it, holding to the theory that all history should begin with the beginning of times. Starting anew, he delved into the myths and legends of the mysterious people of the American continents, running back into the middle ages, marshalling therefrom the facts and theories of his "Native races of the Pacific states." This work in five volumes, was issued in 1874, it being necessary at the last, for the author to organize a publishing company to insure its printing.

Bancroft estimated that the work of writing and research expended upon "Native Races" represented the work of one man, toiling every day
Sundays excepted, for 30 years.

Following this great effort, Bancroft, now widely recognized as an authority on history, plunged into other work, continuing incessantly at his desk until he had produced 34 volumes, comprising the history of the Pacific coast states and countries from Alaska to Argentina. His life ambition realized, he devoted himself to occasional writing, producing "Retrospection" after passing his eightieth birthday. In 1883, accompanied by his assistant, he revisited Mexico and spent months in searching the ancient archives of that country for historical data. The result was a new history of Mexico, recently issued. His library, housed in a specially-constructed building, consisted of over 60,000 volumes.

VISITED OLD HOME

ONLY A YEAR AGO
(Special To The Advocate.)
Granville, O., March 4.—The death of Hubert Howe Bancroft, so extensively noted in the Sunday papers of the country, is a reminder that one more tie is severed which binds the Granville of the past with the Granville of the present-day.
The noted historian, who was born in this village in 1832, still has relatives here, and only a year ago he returned to renew the memories of his boyhood. Miss Amelia Bancroft, Mrs. R. S. Colwell, Miss Rosa Kerr,
Mrs. C. B. White, and the children of Edward L. Jones, are descended from the same parent stem. His life-work, so prolific of splendid results, should be an encouragement to any aspiring soul, for he did not begin to write until after his fortieth year, leaving 34 volumes of valuable history as his contribution to literature, and a library of 60,000 choice books.

PATRIOTIC MEETING

HEBRON SCHOOL

TOMORROW NIGHT

(Special To The Advocate.)
Hebron, Ohio, March 4.—At the Hebron high school auditorium tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock a patriotic meeting will be held. Admission will be free and everybody is invited to be present. Supt. E. T. Osborn arranged the program this morning. It will consist of an illustrated lecture on the German destruction of French cathedrals by Rev. G. B. Schmitt, pastor of St. Paul's church in Newark, who will show the same stereoscopic pictures that were seen in Newark last night. C. H. Spencer, chairman of the county war savings committee, will present the plan of the war savings campaign.

It's Your CHANCE NOW

YOURS, if you'll take it—it is one of a very few. Ben-Hur Tires bear a distinction possessed by no other tire.

It has features of such compelling force that they alone are creating a vast market for it—a tread scientifically contrived; strong and stubborn in its indifference to wear, thus making the question of mileage a minor one and at once making it salable.

To know anything at all about this tire it is necessary to send for descriptive literature.

Its biggest inducement now, however, is hidden in the fact that it is possible to obtain stock in a company which practically has no limitations. It extends to you the "Early-Bird" inducement.

With such advanced technicalities as those contained in the Ben-Hur Tire, no question can arise as to the ultimate strength of its future.

That is why we say—It is your chance.

The Midland Tire & Rubber Company is established—owing to its rapid strides and progress, it has had reason to believe that a real quality-tire has heretofore, not been made, and that such a tire is the "one great demand."

They have set about to make that kind of a tire and have made it. As a consequence, the name Ben-Hur was given to that tire for its triumphant results.

On these great prospects this company, which is already established, doing business only on a cash basis, will grow—must grow—and it is your opportunity to grow with it—and its comparatively small capitalization, for the present, affords those who buy now, a most unusual opportunity.

They offer for sale a small block of 7% non-assessable, cumulative first-preferred stock, paying a dividend semi-annually, carrying with it a Bonus of Common Stock.

Take advantage of this and fill out coupon herewith, and mail today—to get a more detailed description of this tire.

They welcome the most critical investigation.

Among the Newark men who were home were Sgt. Joseph Gainer, Corporal William Rait and Maurice Floyd, Walter Greeley, Francis O'Shaughnessy, Edward Fallon, Earl Binder, Ray Wintermute, Sweetzer, "Shorty" Green, John Sachs, most of them members of Battery B and Headquarters Company of the 324th H. ### ALLOWED TO QUIT

HIS ARMY SERVICE

J. C. Schindle, a former pastor of this city, and who was chaplain of the Old Fourth Ohio in the Spanish-American war has gained unpleasant notoriety in army circles in the west. The Schindles left Newark several years ago.

After leaving Circleville Mrs. Schindle left her husband and he was unfrocked and left the ministry, changing his name to J. Carl Schindle.

The San Diego Calif. Sun says: "J. Carl Schindle, former newspaper advertising man here, and later captain in the 143rd field artillery, national guard, has today resigned from the army 'under fire'."

BIRD HOUSE CONTEST

IS BEING ARRANGED

FOR BOYS OF NEWARK

A city-wide bird house building contest is about to be launched by the Y. M. C. A. This contest will be under the direction of Mr. W. E. Painter, assisted by Mr. A. B. Long, both of the manual training department of the public schools.

There will be four classes of boys, comprising the three upper grades of the grammar schools, and the High school, and four kinds of bird houses. Many valuable prizes will be offered; among the prize contributors so far are the Crane-Krieg, Hdw. Co.; the Humane society; the Loist-Kingery Book Store and the Evans Drug Store. Y. M. C. A. memberships will be offered for some houses, and other firms and organizations will contribute as the contest takes form.

Just now, the committee on classification and management are busy with details which will appear in the papers in a few days. Something big is in prospect in the way of a mass meeting in the High school auditorium later in the contest, at which the status of the feathered kind in our midst will be discussed and raised.

Superintendent Hawkins endorses this proposed activity among Newark school boys in behalf of our bird friends, and parents should take an interest in the movement to make Newark more appreciative of the birds. C. F. Lender of the Y. M. C. A. is enthusiastic in the prediction that much good will be accomplished both from the economic, humane, and juvenile standpoints. Information about classes of boys and houses will be supplied by the Y. M. C. A. or the manual training department of the schools.

You never can tell. Many a man loses his head whose heart is in the right place.

WAR STAMP SALES UP TO MARCH 1ST REACH $194,987

Auditorium "Thrift Party" a Big Success—Number of Selling Stations 726—Utica "Over the Top."

War Savings Stamps sales in Licking county for the week ending February 28 amounted to $28,251. This is several thousand dollars above the quota for the week. January sales totaled $122,000, while February total was only $72,987 making a total to March 1 of $194,987. The apportionment for the year is $1,236,180 or a little more than $100,000 a month.

Manager George M. Fenberg's "Thrift Stamp party" at the Auditorium Saturday afternoon was a big success. He admitted visitors free that afternoon from one to five o'clock providing each purchased a Thrift Stamp and in the four hours he sold 1000 stamps. Only sixty people who visited the theatre that afternoon to see Mary Pickford failed to buy stamps and they were admitted in the regular way through the purchase of tickets. Practically half of the 1,000 who bought Thrift Stamps were beginners in war savings. Every one who had not previously started a government War Savings account was given a Thrift card. Prof. H. F. Moninger spoke briefly on the Thrift campaign during the afternoon.

Mr. Fenberg was pleased to receive a letter from the State War Savings committee today saying "We notice with great pleasure the advertisement in the Newark papers concerning the Pickford show to which were admitted free those who purchased Thrift Stamps at your window on Saturday afternoon. This is one of the cleverest things we have noticed in connection with this campaign in Ohio and is a very patriotic move on your part. We appreciate your spirit and thank you for your attitude. Very truly yours, Ohio War Savings Committee, John A. Kelley, secretary."

Supt. Byron Zwyer of the Brownsville school district, has to date, established War Savings Stamp selling stations in 39 schools in his territory. In each of these schools the teachers have bought stamps and are interesting not only the pupils but the adults of their community in regular or extra savings and purchase of War Savings Stamps. Thirty-five names were recently published. Additional selling stations have been established in these schools: Miss Grace Walters, Pleasant Ridge school, R. F. D. No. 1, Newark; Miss Della Colville, Locust Grove school, R. F. D. Newark; Miss Hazel Lynn Sugar Grove school, R. F. D. No. 2, Glenford; Mrs. Lizzie Hoskinson, Beall school, R. F. D. No. 1, Newark.

The Utica School quota is $3,129, but Supt. C. P. Smith has fixed the goal at $5,000 as the school there have already bought $2,104 25 worth of War Savings stamps.

The quota for Homer is $503, but this figure has already been passed the sales to date amounting to $911 25. Supt. Smith has set the goal at $1,500.

Up to March 1, Postmaster Geach of Granville sold 3,165 War Savings stamps at $15.825 face value and at the same time sold 2,412 Thrift stamps at $503. Here is Granville's good record:

Success of a New Remedy For Backache, Kidneys, Rheumatism

WILLIAMSBURG, OHIO.—"This is an expression of my gratitude. I was seriously affected for years with a complication of diseases, especially of the kidneys and bladder, and tried quite a number of medicines and doctors' prescriptions with no benefit. I was requested by a friend to give a trial to Dr. Pierce's Anuric, which I did by ordering a trial treatment; that was very effective. I then procured a full treatment, and after taking same was restored to health, for which I am extremely thankful."—MARK CUBES, Box 341.

BERLIN HEIGHTS, OHIO.—"I am writing to state what a wonderful medicine Dr. Pierce's Anuric is for rheumatism. I feel it my duty to recommend these tablets to anyone who needs them. They helped me, and they will help others."—Mrs. J. M. BREWSTER, Box 91, Route 1.

NOTE: Folks in town and adjoining counties are delighted with the results they have obtained by using ANURIC, the newest discovery of Dr. Pierce, who is head of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, in Buffalo, N. Y. Those who started the day with a backache, stiff legs, arms and muscles, and an aching head (worn out before the day began because they were in and out of bed half a dozen times at night) are appreciating the perfect rest, comfort, and new strength they obtained from Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets, double strength. To prove that this is a certain uric acid solvent and conquerer of headache, kidney and bladder diseases, and rheumatism, if you've never used the Anuric, cut this out and send ten cents to Dr. Pierce for a large sample package. This will prove to you that Anuric is many times more active than lithia in eliminating uric acid. If you are a sufferer, go to your best druggist and ask for a small bottle of Anuric.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK FEVERISH CHILD

If Little Stomach is Sour, Liver Torpid or Bowels Clogged.

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can't cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomachache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup. (Adv.)

many of the members are buying War Savings stamps regularly.

Fuchs Brothers, North Side jewelers and R. L. Francis, music dealer, have been added to the list of War Stamp selling stations.

War Savings Stamp Secretary Kime of Flint Glass Workers Union is making a splendid record as a Stamp salesman. The Union furnished him money with which to operate. He bought a quantity of stamps and replenishes the supply as needed. Mr. Kime's list of customers is growing every week.

At the close of the illustrated sermon lecture at St. Paul's church Sunday night on the destruction by the Germans of church property in France, Rev. G. B. Schmitt who gave an excellent presentation of the subject, invited C. H. Spencer to speak on the War Savings campaign. It developed that fully two-thirds of those present, and the church was crowded had already started War Savings accounts by buying stamps.

BUICK CARS SHIPPED TO COLUMBUS IN CAR LOAD LOTS.

The Buick automobile company shipped from the factory to Columbus several days ago eight train loads of Buick cars. The total number of Buick cars used to haul the new Buick's was two hundred and two. These automobiles are for distribution among their agents in this section of the state. Mr. Spillman of the Spillman Garage of Newark and several of his men went to Columbus and assisted in the unloading of the cars. The Spillman garage was awarded their portion of this big shipment and the cars were driven from Columbus to Newark and are now on display at their sales room in the New Market building.

A consignment of eight car load of new Buick cars were unloaded at Columbus a few days later. The shipment was for the Cincinnati distribution station. The new six cylinder passenger and the new five passenger, four cylinder Sedan were on exhibit at the Columbus Auto show last week. One of the first sales made at the Columbus auto show last week, was a Buick Sedan. This sale was made in thirty minutes after the show opened by the Oscar Lear Company, Columbus Buick distributors. The great demand for Buick cars in Ohio has made it impossible for dealers to keep cars in stock any great length of time.

The local distributor, Mr. Spillman advises that any one who contemplates buying a Buick this season should place their order now and avoid disappointment.

INCREASING THE ESSENTIAL FOODS

I think it is agreed by most students of the situation that the three most essential foods for the winning of the war are corn, wheat and pork products, and every farmer should have in mind what are the most essential factors for increasing these crops.

First as to increasing the wheat crop for 1918 not a great deal can now be done, but at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station when the wheat was not in the best condition in the spring, a condition much of the wheat is bound to be in this spring, an application of 50 lbs. to 100 lbs. of Nitrate of Soda per acre has very materially increased the yield. This application should be given soon after the wheat starts to grow.

For pork production corn is the most essential food. For a maximum crop of corn the most potent factor is a good stand. It matters not how good the land may be or how much fertilizer is applied, a maximum crop can not be obtained unless we have the good stand. This year corn that will germinate is a scarce article, and no farmer should risk putting corn into the ground that is not certain to grow. True it will take some time and labor to know this and it is not always convenient for each farmer to make the test himself. Realizing the tremendous importance of having the seed that will grow the Licking county agricultural agent has arranged to test corn for farmers.

Mr. Warren Weiant has generously donated a portion of his greenhouse east of Newark for this work and each farmer can bring or send to the office of the County Agricultural Agent, North Park Place, a few grains from each year, envelopes for which will be furnished, and in a few days receive a report of the condition of his corn. Thus it can be known early if the corn will grow or what ear if any will grow.

Having this test made early, if the "home corn" is found not to grow, there is time to look elsewhere. By applying to the County Agricultural Agent in person or by mail instructions will be given.

We need the corn too much not to take advantage of this opportunity. It may mean thousands and thousands of bushels of corn for Licking county.

Under ordinary farm conditions it will cost each farmer from two to five cents per ear to make the test, and many can not make the test until the weather gets warm, making it too late to get seed from other sources.

Do not fail to make use of this opportunity.

The W. R. C. met in the G. A. R. hall, Wednesday afternoon, February 27. The meeting was called to order by the president, Ella McDermit, at 2 p. m. There was a large attendance. We had with us Comrade Scott, who gave us a very interesting talk; also, Comrade Bigbee was there before lodge was called to order, but being so tired after weighing so many of the W. R. C. ladies he was obliged to go home.

The W. R. C. are doing a wonderful work for our soldier boys, and on next Thursday all members are invited to come to the G. A. R. hall and sew all day. Now, if any of you cannot sew, come and bring thread and tape. As there was no further business, lodge closed to meet again March 13.
